THE BURLINGTON TIMES NEWS (N. C.) 6 February 1980

The Public Forum

The CIA replies

responsibility. To provide such are now working on Charter judgments based on false informa-coLegislation to provide laws to tion without any attempt to verify direct and limit our intelligence acyour facts is faulty journalism at tivities.

how much it costs to operate this government organizations. Its intelligence agency," and that "it budget is carefully scrutinized by is likely that this agency never has the Office of Management and to justify its budget requests." You Budget and by the President before surmised that CIA operates it is forwarded to Congress for ad-"behind a cloak without public, or ditional in-depth inspection by four even governmental, scruting. Committees of Congress. someone needs to force a look at Programs are challenged and this agency and determine just justified at every turn, as they what it is doing and how much it is should be. costing to do whatever is being I urge you next time to check the -done."

In January of 1978 President Carto help you in that regard. Your tersigned Executive Order 12036, readers deserve the whole truth. "United States Intelligence Ac-'tivities" which spells out in great the citizens of the United States in detail what the CIA can and cannot a thankless and often dangerous do. Nearly three years ago the profession are deeply hurt by your President created the Intelligence uninformed allegations. Oversight Board (10B) whose only mission is to look over and into the activities of this country's intelligence apparatus. Both Houses of Congress have created committees for precisely the same purpose—The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (May 19, Providing your readers with 1976) and the House Permanent editorial judgments which they Select Committee on Intelligence trust and believe is an awesome (July 24, 1977). Both committees

I have just seen your editorial of January 7, "The CIA, Why Are We So Surprised?"

The CIA is subject to the same You reported that "no one knows rigorous budget process as other facts before you launch into an Where have you been? editorial trade. My office is here

Those in the CIA who work for

HERBERT E. HETU Director of Public Affairs
Central Intelligence Agency Washington